

EMMANUEL FILTEAU

manu@filteau.net | @inkorporate | inkorpora.com

I have been employed as a full-time graphic designer and web integrator since 2000. During this time, I spent seven years in an agency where I worked in a great variety of design projects.

My passion, the Web, has always been part of my life and career. I have designed and maintained several important corporate sites.

I'm also known for my illustrations and comic books.

I'm open-minded, resourceful and eager to be in an environment where I can be challenged and learn new skills.

Experience

Graphic Designer GLOBAL Communication 1997-2007

During my stay in GLOBAL I produced several corporate newsletters, designed many advertisements (small and large-scale) and also produced numerous corporate videos and multimedia presentations. Most of these were screened during special events during which one of my roles was to ensure that the event unfolded seamlessly. I was also responsible for creating and maintaining websites.

Some clients

Bombardier, Cascades, Domtar, Tembec.

Notable achievements

Carbon market video for Montreal Exchange. I was in charge of directing and editing the video. It won Gold in the LACP Spotlight Awards in 2006

Web Designer, Integrator CGI

2008-present

Since I joined CGI, I've been working primarily on web projects. In recent years, my main interest has been Responsive Web Design. I've designed multiple professional web applications for clients such as Bell and Manulife. My main responsibilities include creating wireframes, creatives and static prototypes.

Some clients

Bell, BNC, Charter, Manulife.

Notable achievements

My latest project was designing two buyflows (residential and business) for a large american telecom. I built the wireframes, the creatives in close collaboration with the marketing department. I was also in charge of a small team who created the HTML pages.
